

Pragma+Associates

Mental health assurance services

We provide quantifiable improvements in employee mental health. This will help you to improve workplace productivity and save you money.

Our mental health assurance services are tailored to the requirements of organisations and individual employees. We use our experience along with HSE and international stress management standards to ensure that you achieve legal compliance and maximise the health benefits to your employees

For more information or to arrange a free initial chat, call Laura Naughton on 01302 499050 or email: lauranaughton@pragmaandassociates.co.uk

Pragma