

Training support for Solicitors dealing with occupational disease and accident cases

Pragma

Pragma and Associates Ltd are able to provide training support to legal professionals who deal with occupational disease and accident compensation claims as listed in the schedule:

Schedule of sessions

Control of silica dust exposure: An illustrated guide

Dose assessment in asbestos cases

Identifying asbestos containing materials and their use in buildings

Respiratory Protective Equipment: Experience in practice

Asbestos related disease: What should duty holders know and do

Asbestos: Hygiene standards and limits

Asbestos removal: History and development of the asbestos removal industry

Respiratory risks in the work place

Control of vibration risks: An illustrated guide

Understanding accident investigation: How to get the best out of your expert

Witness statements: The impact on expert evidence

Liability issues in work at height cases

Liability issues in machinery safety cases

Accidents during adventure activities: Understanding good safety practice for lawyers

Other subjects available on request

Short sessions: 30 minutes - 1 hour.

Sessions can be APIL accredited.

Sessions can be provided remotely, in person at client's offices or Pragma's office.

There is no charge for sessions but availability is limited.

There will be an opportunity for questions within the sessions.

Please contact Laura Hooper on 01302 499050 or laurahooper@pragmaandassociates.co.uk to arrange a session(s)

Pragma+Associates
www.pragmaandassociates.co.uk